Dear <aanhef>,

You have entrusted the risk insurance for your employees to Zwitserleven. We are very happy that you are our customer. The agreement currently in place ends on <einddatum> and we will terminate it with effect from the same date. Due to a simplification of our product range, we no longer offer stand-alone risk insurance. We can therefore not continue our partnership. This letter explains the consequences for you and your employees.

What does this mean for you?

[Als NOVP=Ja] You can no longer insure the surviving dependants' bridging pension. [Einde Als NOVP=Ja]

[Als NPris=Ja] You can no longer insure the partner's and orphan's pension. [Einde Als NPris=Ja]

[Als COV=Ja] You can no longer insure the Group Term Life Insurance. However, you can insure this if you have a basic pension scheme with Zwitserleven. [Einde Als COV=Ja]

Inform your employees

Is risk insurance part of the terms of employment? Then discuss the changes with your employees and your works council, if you have one. Your adviser can help in this regard.

Any questions?

Please contact your adviser. They are familiar with your situation and can offer you the best advice. We will send them a copy of this letter for your convenience. Alternatively, you can contact <naam IAM> on <tel IAM> or send an e-mail to <email IAM>.

With kind regards,
Zwitserleven
